AT REST IN OAKDALE.

Funeral of Late Capt. J. M. McGowan One of Largest Ever Held in Wilmington.

SERVICES BY DR. McCLURE.

Various Secret Orders and Camp of Veterans, to Which Deceased Belonged, Attended in a Body—The Burial With Odd Fellow Honors.

With the possible exception of one—that of the late Jos. B. Willard, a member of the volunteer fire department who was killed while in the discharge of a heroic duty six or eight years ago, by the falling of a wall on South Water street—the funeral of the late Capt. James M. McGowan Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock was perhaps the largest in point of attendance ever held in Wilmington. The Camp of Confederate Veterans and most of the many secret orders to which the deceased belonged, met at their respective halls and attended the services in a body, the procession of those on foot alone being longer than the distance covered by two blocks. There were also in attendance a large number of friends, not included in the ranks of the orders and Fifth Street M. E. church in which the services were held, was totally inadequate to seat them. Eyota Tribe, Improved Order of Red Men, to which Capt McGowan was peculiarly attached, and Cherokee Tribe, of the same fraternity, were the first to march to the residence, 713 Orange street, where they were soon joined by Wilmington Lodge No. 139, I. O. O. F., and other Odd Fellows; Jeff Davis Council No. 63, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, and Cape Fear Camp No. 254, United Confederate Veterans, all of whom formed a solemn procession, escorting the remains to the church and subsequently following them with mournful step to the cemetery, where the burial took place according to the solemn rites of Odd Fellowship, the officers of Wilmington Lodge officiating.

The services in the church were by the Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, in the absence of Capt. McGowan's pastor, the Rev. F. M. Shamburger, who became ill while at Rockingham, N. C., assisting in the dedication of a new church there. Dr. McClure had been asked only to assist in the service, but upon taking entire charge he conducted the funeral in a most impressive manner. At the close of the service proper he took occasion to pay a high tribute to the fellowship and humanity of his friend and the bravery and fidelity, which Capt. McGowan gave to the Confederacy in its darkest days. He also spoke a word of comfort to the sorely bereaved one and to the several secret orders which had lost the presence of one so enthusiastic and devoted. The musical features of the service were especially pretty. Miss Kate Sholar rendered sweetly as a voluntary the solo "Loved Ones are Waiting for Me," with chorus by a double quartette consisting of Misses May Landin and Edna Fleet, Mrs. Carrie Gardner, Messrs. J. W. Fleet, Albert Dosher, J. S. Williams and Willie Muse. "Asleep in Jesus" was also beautifully rendered and one of the most touching of the selections was "Sleep on Beloved" by the Fifth Street Male Quartette, composed of Messrs. W. R. Dosher, first tenor; Albert Dosher, second tenor; Willie McGirt, first bass and Willie Muse, second bass. As the remains left the church "Nearer My God" was softly rendered by the choir. Miss Mamie McGirt, the organist, played the accompanist in soft and tender strains.

The floral tributes were many and very handsome. One of them, a floral cross, perched upon which was a snowy white dove, as if in the act of about to fly, was especially handsome and was laid upon the casket by Capt. McGowan's son, Mr. W. A. McGowan. All the lodges to which deceased belonged also sent beautiful designs.

Those who came for the funeral were Mr. P. W. McGowan and Mrs. Florence Bragassa, of Raleigh, and Mrs. Kate Neil, of Graham, brother and sisters of the deceased; T. W. and William Blake, of Raleigh, cousins; Ulyses G. Thompson, of Greensboro, and Lewis Bragassa, of Raleigh, nephews, and Miss Florence Neil, of Graham, a niece of the deceased. There were also in attendance a delegation of Red Men from Raleigh, including Mr. A. Dughi, John U. Smith and others.

The pall-bearers were as follows: Honorary, Dr. J. T. Schonwald, Messrs. Marsden Bellamy, John Haar, John H. Gore, Jr., W. M. Cumming and Hon. John D. Bellamy; active, Messrs. A. J. Marshall, James Cowan, Jere Holmes, W. B. Savage, T. W. Wood and Dr. C. T. Harper.

Funeral of Mrs. Robert Henning.

The remains of the late Mrs. Virginia H. Henning, widow of the late Robert Henning, arrived in Wilmington on the 10:10 A. M. train from Richmond Sunday and were taken immediately to Oakdale cemetery where, after brief funeral services by Rt. Rev. Bishop A. A. Watson, they were laid to rest by the grave of her late husband. The floral offerings were very beautiful. The pall-bearers were Messrs. F. A. Lord, J. C. Munds, W. C. Munds and H. P. Munson. Accompanying the remains to Wilmington were Mr. and Mrs. Jno. B. Munson, of New York; Mr. and Mrs. Ned Palmer, of Richmond, and Mr. Robert Henning, of Baltimore, all of whom returned Sunday evening.

The Charlotte Observer says that the Baptist excursion, which leaves there to-morrow morning for Wilmington, promises to be a larger and more successful affair than the one that was run by the Charlotte Baptists last Summer, and that was the record-breaker in this section of the country. For the excursion 16 cars have been contracted for. These will be run in two trains of eight cars each. The first will leave Charlotte at 7 A. M. and the second section at 7:30 o'clock. BOARD OF ALDERMEN

Additional Restrictions Put Upon the Sale of Liquor Within the Corporate Limits.

57 RETAIL LICENSES GRANTED.

Also One to Distillery, Two to Breweries and One to Wholesale Dealer—Petitions and Counter Petitions—Letter from W. C. T. U.

The expected fight against the liquor interests of the city; especially those saloons situated within 200 feet of a church, in which instances the granting of applications is discretionary under the law, did not materialize at last night's special meeting of the Board of Aldermen, held for the expressed purpose of renewing licenses for the six months beginning July 1st However, certain restrictions were thrown around the traffic, which reputable saloon men may not object to, and which will no doubt tend to rid the business of several of its objectionable features under more liberal regulations. Of the 59 applications for retail license, 57 were granted, one was not acted upon and one was rejected. At present there are 61 retail licenses in force but four did not apply last night for renewal this term, viz: W. A. Voliers, South Front street; J. G. Kuhlken, Sixth and Brunswick; E. A. Kerr, Fourth and Hanover, and Elijah Walton, Thirteenth and Market streets. That of F. B. Brown was not acted upon for the reason that the present month's license is unpaid, and the Board refused to renew that of J. S. Sneeden, 115 South Front street, because of objection raised to the manner in which the place is conducted. In addition to the retail licenses, one was granted for a distillery at Thirteenth and Queen street; two to breweries and one to a wholesale dealer.

The Board met at 8:30 o'clock, Mayor Springer in the chair and all members present, viz: Messrs. Murrell, Karr, Sweeney, Moore, W. H. Yopp, Behrends, W. E. Yopp, Hashagen, Tiencken and Gafford. There were also present a large number of spectators, including many who had applications before the Board. Mayor Springer stated the object of the meeting. Before proceeding, Mr. Gafford said he had in the hands of the clerk a resolution which he desired to be read. The Mayor asked if it bore upon the subject of the applications for license, as that was the only business that could properly be brought before the Board at the special meeting. Mr. Gafford having replied in the affirmative, the clerk read the following:

Be it ordained by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington and the same is hereby ordained with authority, that in granting liquor license, the following rules shall be issued with every license granted. Any violation of these rules shall be cause to revoke and shall revoke the license of persons so violating:

1. No woman shall enter any saloon, bar-room or other place where intoxicating drinks are sold. Provided, however, that in those places where groceries and liquors are sold together; this shall not apply to the grocery department.

2. No saloon keeper shall sell or give whiskey or other intoxicating drinks to minors.

3. No saloon keeper shall sell or give away any intoxicating liquors on Sunday. The curtains to all the windows of all saloons shall be raised on Sundays and no windows shall be stained or painted.

4. No saloon keeper shall allow more than three persons to congregate in the doorway of his place of business for more than five minutes at any time.

5. No saloon keeper shall allow music or dancing of any kind in his saloon.

6. No bar-keeper or his clerk or clerks shall be allowed to enter his place of business in company with any other person or persons.

7. No bar-keeper shall sell or give to any person entering his saloon in an intoxicated or partly intoxicated condition any whiskey, beer or other intoxicating drink.

8. No saloon shall serve meals on Sunday.

9. The word "saloon" as used in these rules shall apply to all places where intoxicating drinks are sold.

10. It shall be the duty of all policemen, firemen or other persons in the employ of the city to report promptly all violations of these rules, and any person failing to do so shall be discharged from the service.

11. It shall be the duty of the Chief of Police, at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen, to report whether or not there have been any violations of these rules.

Mr. Gafford moved the adoption of the resolution; seconded by Mr. Moore, Mr. Behrends moved it be taken up by sections; seconded by Moore and Sweeney, and carried unanimously. Mr. Tiencken wanted to know if the rules would be as binding as ordinances. It was stated that the licenses would only be granted under the conditions embodied therein. First, second and third sections were adopted unanimously. Upon objection by Mr. Behrends, fourth section was amended by striking out "three or more persons on the sidewalk in front of saloons," and made "in the doorway," as printed above. The other sections then went through unanimously, with slight discussions as to interpretation and the resolutions were finally adopted as a whole.

Before reading the applications the Mayor handed the clerk the following, which was read and placed on file:

Mayor W. E. Springer and the Board of Aldermen:

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Wilmington feeling their inability to act alone do appeal to the Mayor and Board of Aldermen to take definite steps toward a complete prohibition of the liquor traffic in our city. The saloon element is losing no time in pushing its cause; especially among the young men, and where it is gaining such a strong hold is the place that we feel should be looked to by the better and purer influences of temperance sentiment. Such a sentiment has been aroused among us and yet as a woman's society, we are hampered as to aggressive work, but feel that it is in the power of your honorable body to take positive steps and such as will tell in the building up of a strong prohibition movement. We are willing and will consider it an honor to do any work we can in so good a cause, and would co-operate in any way it may be possible for us to do. We send this appeal only as a suggestion, knowing that this movement can only be developed gradually, but we feel that it is time some steps were taken, a beginning made, and that it is our duty as a temperance organization to place ourselves in a position to help push the cause.

This communication is heartily endorsed and expresses the sentiment of every member of the W. C. T. U.

Yours in the cause,
MRS. W. P. OLDHAM,
President.

The clerk proceeded with reading the applications and the endorsements thereon, which he said he had examined very carefully and believed them to be correct. As the clerk read, those that were objected to were laid aside, it being the understanding that all others were granted. Stelljes & Co.'s and Chas. Richter's applications were found with endorsements by persons who had signed other applications. Closer examination, however, revealed that the applications contained sufficient names besides the double signatures, and they were passed. Mr. Moore asked that applications of J. S. Sneeden and J. W. Smith, No. 6 Chesnut street, be laid aside. A petition against granting license to W. S. Herring, No. 8 North Second street, was read and it was laid aside for discussion. Petitions for and against granting license to Capps & Co., Sixth and Castle, were also read, and that one, too, went over. The batch not objected to was then granted as a whole.

The application of W. S. Herring was then discussed and the petition against granting it was read with the following names attached: Wilmington Pressing Club, J. C. King, Manager; J. B. Farrar, Wm. Bonitz, M. Braddy, E. R. Pickard, N. M. Mc Eachern, W. S. Walker, J. C. McCartney, J. L. Donnelly, M. S. Smith, S. W. Sanders, R. B. Moore, C. S. Garrell, S. L. Smith, J. W. Smith.

L. V. Grady, Esq., attorney for Mr. Herring, claimed that there should be no discrimination and attacked the motive of some of the petitioners until stopped by the mayor. He said he meant no reflection but saw no reason why the license should not be granted. Mr. J. B. Farrar, one of the signers, was present and made a speech against the liquor traffic in general. The question was finally called and a parliamentary tangle ensued. The motion was to not grant the license, Messrs. Murrell, Karr, Moore and W. H. Yopp voting in the affirmative, Messrs. Hashagen, Tiencken, W. E. Yopp, Gafford and Sweeney voting in the negative and Mr. Behrends not voting at all. There was talk as to the standing of the vote and Mr. Behrends said he would vote not to grant, making the ballot 5 to 5. The Mayor cast the tie off by voting also not to grant and so declared the result, but Mr. Gafford called his attention to the fact that the license had been granted upon the first vote and the other ballots were out of order. The City Attorney was appealed to and coincided in his views with Mr. Gafford. The mayor thereupon declared the license granted to Mr. Herring.

Application of Capps & Co., was read with petitions for and against granting as follows: For: W. B. Savage, J. E. Sharp, R. H. Rowan, D. A. Rowan, B. M. Hill, J. S. Piver, P. T. Pendergraft, J. H. Litgen, S. A. Greelish, W. B. Jones, C. C. Parker, A. L. King, J. R. Hill, C. E. Bender, J. M. Watson, W. E. Watson, L. M. Smith, R. H. Shew, W. E. Mann, C. R. Pridgen, Joe Roddick, J. C. Walton, Jesse Farrow, E. A. Todd, B. F. Reaves, Walter M. Bell. Against: R. A. Biddle, J. B. Fales, T. G. Landin, J. E. G. Brown, J. D. Brown, J. L. Barker, H. G. Saunders, R. B. Moore, W. K. Bell, J. M. Branch, J. W. Davis, E. T. Green, M. Marshburn, J. E. Robinson, M. G. Silvis, W. M. Johnson, W. D. Johnson, W. T. Johnson, J. H. Holton, Wm. Devane, James E. Smith, Jas. S. Potter, J. B. Hall, J. F. Everett, I. S. King, J. T. Ebert.

Messrs. Gafford and Tiencken testified as to the order of the place and Messrs. W. H. Yopp and Murrell decried it. Chief of Police Furlong, being called upon, said that while a good many arrests were made in and near the saloon, they were always at the request of Mr. Capps. The license was finally granted, Mr. W. H. Yopp alone voting nay.

As to the license of J. S. Sneeden, Mr. Moore said he objected seriously to the manner in which the place is conducted, and Chief Furlong, being called upon, said he regarded it the lowest place in Wilmington. The application was unanimously rejected. Mr. Moore withdrew his objection to the application of J. W. Smith, No. 6 Chesnut, and the license was unanimously granted. The full list of applications granted is as follows:

Conveniences for Excursionists.

Messrs. Jos. H. Watters, John H. Rehder and Geo. O. Gaylord, a committee from the Chamber of Commerce, were present and presented a strong petition from business men, asking that some conveniences be provided for excursionists who visit the city in Summer. The large room on the second floor of the City Hall building was suggested as a suitable place where the desired accommodations might be found. However, the matter was left to the Streets and Wharves Committee, and upon motion of Mr. Hashagen $500 was placed at its disposal for the improvement.

The Morning Star

WILLIAM H. BERNARD.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 23.

THE CONSEQUENCES OF REPEAL.

New York Sun: In a very clearly written article in the Yale Law Journal, Mr. John R. Dos Passos reaches the conclusion already indicated by the Sun in its discussions of negro suffrage at the South.

This is that sooner or later the country will have to face squarely the question of the repeal of the Fifteenth Amendment and the repeal or modification of the second section of the Fourteenth Amendment, leaving the Thirteenth as it now stands in the Constitution.

In contrast with the protests of violent and ignorant partisanship against the correction of what many intelligent and candid Republicans at the North now regard as a stupendous blunder, hear what this able lawyer and student of constitutional history says of the practical effect of such a repeal:

"The consequences resulting from this method of solution may not be as profound or far-reaching as many, at first blush, may think. It is true that it requires the repeal of the second section of the Fourteenth and all of the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. The effect of this repeal would be to relegate the whole question of suffrage to the respective States. They could deprive the whites or blacks, or any part thereof, of the right to vote. * * * The negro can never be deprived of citizenship nor of his rights to equality before the law, so long as the first section of the Fourteenth Amendment remains a law—and it may be assumed to be permanent.

"Is it fair to trust the Southern States with the regulation of this great question? I claim that it is. Primarily it is their intent to treat the negro race justly and liberally, to open up to them the paths of education and progress. To do otherwise means positive loss to State development."

The repeal of the Fifteenth Amendment and the repeal or modification of the second section of the Fourteenth Amendment mean neither the abolition of negro suffrage nor the exclusion of the negro from citizenship and its inalienable rights.

The right to vote is not one of the necessary rights of citizenship. It is restricted everywhere by law in the case of white citizens, according to State ideas of expediency or competency to exercise the suffrage.

The State should determine. The unqualified power to determine this question of suffrage should be restored to the States, where it properly belongs; and this can be done by a process of constitutional change which shall neither take the ballot away from a single black man fit to be a voter nor deprive any black man, whether fit or not to be a voter, of the essential rights of citizenship, including the right to the full and equal protection of the laws.

POST CHECK CURRENCY.

Brooklyn Citizen: There is a host of people in city, town and country who regret that the Fifty-seventh Congress adjourned without taking affirmative action on the Post Check Currency bill. It is a measure wholly in the interest of the people, and absolutely unpartisan in character, which is perhaps the reason why no time was given to its passage.

The advocates, including especially the deviser of the system, however, are fairly satisfied with the progress made towards its adoption and quite hopeful that it will go through the Fifty-eighth Congress substantially as devised. Everybody who has to pay bills due in distant places, and has, as now, to make use of the registered letter plan or the money order system, will join in this hope.

If postmasters were supplied with a certain amount of the Post Check bills, credited as cash, which they would be until redeemed, those who want to send money to creditors, relatives or friends, could supply themselves with bills of the $1, $2 or $5 denomination at the post office, supposing that there were none to be had at the storesdealt with, clap a 2-cent stamp on the one they desired to send and post it like any ordinary letter; and, if they made it payable to any one in particular, they could feel sure that no one else could secure its redemption, and that fact would put a damper on any other person's desire to steal it.

In short, the Post Check, if unendorsed, would pass as money the same as the present bank notes, while, if endorsed to a payee, it would be of no use to any one else, and the sender would be relieved of the necessity of spending the time required to send money orders or registered letters, and of the anxiety for the safe transmission of the latter.

As has been said before, the Post Check Currency system is the device of C. W. Post, who offers it to the Government and people without other reward than the knowledge that it is worth something to them; and he is bearing the financial burden imposed by the maintenance of a bureau at 825 Vermont avenue in Washington, and such expenses for printing, etc., as are required to keep the question before the public.

It is to be hoped that the bill as agreed on by the House Committee last January will be promptly taken up when the next Congress meets, and passed.

A lottery that would probably have the approval of President Roosevelt exists in Derby, Conn., where annual drawings are held. It is the lottery of a bachelors' club of twenty-five members, the initiation fee of which is $50. Once a year twenty-four white strips and one black strip are put into a wheel and drawn out. The member who draws the black strip stands pledged to get married within a year, and the club pays $200 for wedding expenses. Should the black strip man fail to marry within the specified time, he loses whatever he has paid into the treasury and is expelled from membership.

Richmond folk are complaining bitterly now of having to walk. Why, go back to 1850, or thereabouts, when old men thought nothing of walking from "Screamersville" to "Butchertown," or even to "Rocketta." In those days Richmond had but two police officers on day duty, "Old Clem. White" and "Old Byrd Page," as the boys derisively called them. Think of the pedestrian feats they performed in covering the city from Buchanan's Spring to Church Hill. The present generation of Richmonders must be weak in the legs.

Howell is the name of a town of 1,200 people situated three miles from Evansville, Ind. The town has a street car line. A day or two ago the company put a negro in the position of conductor. The sight of the black man taking fares was too much for the people of the Indiana town of Howell. "A crowd of angry citizens,' says a dispatch to the Indianapolis News, "boarded the car and threw the negro off. The negro was told to leave town at once, and he has not been seen since."

John T. Gibbons is quoted as saying that in boyhood his brother, now cardinal and archbishop, delighted in athletic exercises, played a rattling game of baseball, was a splendid swimmer, and withal was very methodical. "He had a certain time for study, a time for play and a time for prayer. He was a boy of system, just as he is to-day a man of system."

From Experience With Alfalfa.

First.—We do not believe hogs will thrive on alfalfa hay alone, nor do we think it pays to expect young pigs are going to do well on alfalfa pasture only.

Second.—We do not believe that you can turn shotes on an alfalfa pasture in the spring and with one pound of corn for each head a day make a gain of from one-half to three-fourths of a pound a day or from 125 to 150 pounds during the six months of grazing season, which is making pork at a low cost.

Third.—We also believe from experiments we have made that by chopping alfalfa hay (this must be good hay, where the leaves have been preserved) and mixing this with ground corn at the rate of about one pound of corn to five or six pounds of alfalfa it will make a ration that will carry stock hogs over the winter as satisfactorily to the owner as the ordinary ration, mostly of corn, at one-third the cost, and the animal will be in better condition to ward off disease.—G. H. Payne, Nebraska.

When the King Laughed.

One of the three occasions on which Philip IV. of Spain laughed was as follows: Philip's first wife, Isabella of Bourbon, died in 1645, and the next year he married the Austrian Archduchess Maria Anna. This princess understood Spanish but very imperfectly. Passing on her way to the capital through a certain town which was distinguished for its silk manufactures, she was presented by the inhabitants with a few dozen silk stockings. Heedless of the queen's presence, the master of ceremonies snatched the parcel out of the hands of the town councilors, flung it on the ground and exclaimed in a rage:

"Are you not aware that the queens of Spain are not supposed to have any legs?"

The queen, with her imperfect knowledge of Spanish, here began to weep, called for her father confessor, Reithardt, and told him that she meant to return to Austria. If she had known that in order to become queen of Spain it was necessary to have one's limbs cut off, she would rather have died in Germany than undergo the operation in Spain. When this incident was related to the king, he burst into loud laughter before the whole assembled court.

Their Own Lookout.

There was an Irishman who after reaching America was full of homesick brag, in which nothing in America even approached things of a similar variety in Ireland. In speaking of the bees of the ould sod he grew especially roseate and said:

"Why, the baze in that counthry is twice as big as in this, bedade. Indade, they're bigger than that—they're as big as the sheep ye have in this counthry!"

"Bees as big as sheep!" said his incredulous listener. "Why, what kind of hives do they have to keep them in?"

"No bigger than the ones in this counthry," was the reply.

"Then how do the bees get into the hives?" he was asked.

"Well," replied the Irishman, "that's their own lookout!"

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds to be unequaled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, of Bentorville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years, and was doctored all the time without being benefitted. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist. Trial bottles free; regular sizes 50c and $1.00.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— The Greensboro Female College, which has not paid expenses for years, has been closed by the trustees.

— It is said that E. A. Lackey intends to build a big whiskey distillery at Hamlet that will manufacture 115 barrels of liquor daily.

— A car load of alligators, en route from Florida to Atlantic City, passed through Greensboro Friday afternoon. Among them was a turtle as big as the head of a hogshead.

— Charles Taylor, colored, was found guilty of burglary in the second degree in Wilson court, and sentenced by Judge Shaw to life imprisonment in the penitentiary.

— Elizabeth City Tar Heel: Mr. D. O. Berry, of Columbia, who was in the city this week, says there is more money in Tyrrell county than there has been at any time since the civil war. There has been as much as forty thousand dollars put in circulation there within the past thirty days from Irish potatoes alone.

— Rockingham Anglo-Saxon: Mr. D. M. Morrison made a trip through Scotland county a few days ago, and he says crops are in a very bad condition indeed through that section on account of excessive rains. The cotton crop especially is in bad condition, in many places the water having stood over the tops of the rows.

— Reidsville Review: Col. Smith, representing a wealthy platinum and gold mining company of Arizona, is spending a few days in Pelham inspecting ores recently found on the lands of T. J. Coleman, Respus Beck and M. B. Fitzgerald. Samples of this ore were recently sent Col. Smith and he seems very much pleased with the same.

— Troy Examiner: A few days ago Mr. C. C. Wade showed us a valuable piece of pyrites ore taken from his Cotton Stone Mountain property just north of Troy. He says he has had it assayed and it is found to contain 16 ounces of gold per ton, worth $320.72. The property is yet undeveloped, but Mr. Wade expects to develop it soon.

— Washington N. C., special to Raleigh News and Observer: On the Atlantic Coast Line morning passenger train from Pinner's Point, Va., to Tarboro, N. C., a middle-aged white man, in going from one coach to another, fell between the cars and was nearly cut in two, death being almost instantaneous. It is impossible to learn his name here.

— Hickory Press: Thousands of bushels of sweet potatoes have been shipped from Catawba county during the past year. We suppose that $30,000 would be a low estimate for those shipped from Hickory, and they have brought all the way from sixty to eighty cents per bushel. This brings to the farmers of Catawba county quite a nice sum of money.

— Raleigh special to Charlotte Observer: Passengers who came in on a train from Norlina report what seems to have been a deliberate suicide by a negro woman about 35 years of age. She ran out of her house, which was near the railway track, and threw herself under a passenger train, which cut her body to pieces and rolled her head many yards. She was thus killed in plain view of a brother and her little son. It is said that sickness was the cause of the suicide.

— Durham Herald: Col. Julian S. Carr, Mr. Thomas M. Gorman, of this city, and Mr. C. E. Egan, formerly of Durham, have brought suit against the Adams Express Company for $10,000. The suit is brought in Chicago and is on account of the failure of the Adams Company to deliver promptly six telephone devices, the patents on which are owned by the three gentlemen named, and were shipped to Chicago for the purpose of being exhibited at the Interstate Telephone Convention held in Chicago last December.

— Elkin Times: Esq. W. H. Wolf, of Kapps Mills, was here the other day on his way to Winston with 2,000 lbs. of fine tobacco. —— Mr. Paten Coram, of Richmond Hill, Yadkin county, is visiting his son, Mr. John Coram. He is 90 years old and in good health. He says he works about six hours each day and enjoys life as well as he ever did. The old fellow jokes and talks about getting married again the same if he was sixty. He made brick at Elkin back in the 50's before the war. —— Mr. A. L. Brown has completed a machine that will mark him as a mechanical genius. The machine is made to turn any kind of small wood work and does it by automatic feed. Up to this time all machines for such work have been fed by hand and about 3,000 pieces of wood turned was a day's work for a man. This machine is now successfully turning 20,000 pins in a day and doing the work better than it would be done by hand. It is in operation at the shops of the Elkin Machine Co.

Pushing the Red Polls.

The Red Poll breeders are pushing their breeds as the ideal general purpose animal in strong terms and are using the statement of Hon. James Wilson, secretary of the United States department of agriculture, in which he says, "From data at hand it is shown that the claim made for the Red Polls as the dual purpose breed is fully established, and after an experience of thirteen years I know of no breed comparable to them to meet the requirements of the general farmer."

I do not propose discussing the relative merits of the Shorthorn and Red Poll. The milking strains of these breeds, the former in the World's fair dairy test and the latter in the model dairy at Buffalo, have made enviable reputations as milk producers. The references suffice to support the fact that in each breed there is the foundation upon which can be established a pure breed of dual purpose animals which will meet the hearty approval of farmers generally. The cropping out of partially concealed dairy breeding in occasional animals gives the owners of such cows ample foundation upon which to begin selection, breeding and feeding, and in twenty-five years the expert breeder and feeder can produce animals of superior dairy quality from the females of either breed.—T. A. Borman, Kansas.

Stock Learn to Like Malt Sprouts.

In the manufacture of beer from barley the grain is allowed to sprout, during which process the barley starch is converted into malt sugar. When the tiny sprouts have reached a certain length, the barley is dried and the sprouts shaken off by sieving. In the malthouses these sprouts accumulate in very large quantities. They are economical sources of protein, but because of their peculiar taste stock do not at first relish them, but soon become fond of them. They can be fed profitably in small quantities, and the manure from animals fed on malt sprouts is very valuable because of the high per cent of ash.

Raise Your Green Stuff.

Any one who has room to keep chickens can also raise green stuff for them. Lettuce is one of the best green feeds, and it takes only a small plot to raise enough for a good sized flock of chickens. One man who has only four city lots keeps 100 or more chickens and finds room to sow rape enough to furnish green feed all summer. He sows rape in one or two of his yards and after it gets six inches high, which is only a short time, he turns the chickens in and lets them strip it. Then they are turned into another yard which has been sowed to rape, and while they are eating at that the first starts up as green as ever.

FOR NANNIE'S SAKE

By J. P. COUGHLAN

Copyright, 1901, by J. P. Coughlan

The flier which left San Francisco that night carried me with it, although its first stopping place was ten miles beyond Somersville, the village of my destination. Such was the impatience of my rage that I preferred the prospect of a ten mile tramp to the delay and slowness of a later train.

How my hate burned on that November night! My thoughts ran on to the accompaniment of the deep, mellow murmur of the train as it flew over its bed of steel. Through and through my brain like a molten ball of lead ran the remembrance of the wrong done me by my treacherous friend, and time and time again I dwelt longingly on the revenge that should be mine.

I was still in my soldier's uniform. But first let me tell you the story. Let me explain my fierce hate. Jim Bradley and I had been chums—a fine, lovable fellow I thought him. We wore side by side in Cuba, and I believed that we knew one another as two men who braved hardship and danger together should.

We went to the Philippines. Our friendship remained fast and seemed to be impervious to any assault. But that country must have made a sad change in the character of my chum. Lured on by some dark eyed native woman, he turned traitor to his country and sacrificed his honor. He procured arms for the rebels and actually contemplated joining them. It was I who discovered his perfidy. He confessed and tried to draw me into his traitorous schemes. My duty was to denounce him, but I could not. Our old friendship was too strong, and I had foolish hopes of dissuading him from his madness.

I cannot rake over the details now, I do not want to, nor can I explain clearly the events that followed. He was suspected, arrested and brought to trial. By some devilish trick he reversed our true positions and made me appear the guilty one. Dazed and staggered by this turn in affairs, I admitted the knowledge I had possessed of Bradley's intrigues with the rebels. For six months I was held waiting for trial.

nothing but the vitality, fostered by vengeance, to support me. In the meantime Bradley had been invalided home, and, knowing that he had been born in Somersville, thither I raced to gratify the burning desire for revenge that I had nursed for six months.

There, in brief, is the reason why I was on board this express. It was the end of the chase, and I was hot on the trail of the false friend who betrayed country and comrade with equal readiness, the one at the behest of a dark eyed rebel witch, the other to save his own worthless neck.

The motion of the express exhilarated me beyond measure. The hundred and one plans for vengeance that I had plotted across the Pacific I reviewed again and again, yet decided upon none. I would let the circumstances of our meeting be the arbiter of what ignomy I inflicted upon him before killing him.

Suddenly the air was filled with a monster groan. A roar and shock confused my senses, and the car in which I rode seemed to rise with a bound into the air, and then I knew no more.

I awakened in the white bed of a hospital. There had been a dreadful wreck, an entire train derailed and almost crushed to atoms within a few hundred yards of Somersville. The local hospital, generally an almost empty institution, was now filled with the injured, and ambulance trains had carried scores of others to Dalton, the next station on the line.

I awoke to the sight of a sweet face bending tenderly over me, and a soft voice bade me be quiet as I opened my lips to ask a question.

"Now, you must lie perfectly still. You are not badly hurt—a broken arm and a little shock. You will be up and about very soon if you obey me implicitly. I am your nurse. I know you will be obedient because you are a soldier and accustomed to obey."

I nodded feebly and closed my eyes again. Can you understand how sweet is the sight of a fair, tender American face after nearly two years in the swamps and wilds of the Philippines? The note of compassion in her voice, the pure grace of her face, bound me a slave to my nurse, and her gentle presence was restful to my overtaxed nerves.

In a few days I began to improve rapidly. I took an interest in my surroundings, and, having discovered that I was actually in Somersville, I asked many questions, trying to find out through my nurse many things that I desired to know concerning the man whose infamy had caused me this journey to Somersville.

My nurse was a native of the town and was one of the generous volunteers who had given their services to the victims of the wreck. All who knew her called her Nannie, and when I asked how to address her she told me to call her Nannie, as the others did.

One day I asked her, in as unconcerned a voice as I could muster, whether she knew any Bradleys living in the town.

"Indeed I do," she replied. "I know them very well. But why do you ask? Do you know any of them?"

In a reckless burst of confidence, having first bound her to secrecy, I told my story. It was a relief to me, lying there on my back, with my eyes staring at the white ceiling, to pour out my wrongs to this girl in whose presence and touch I always felt a wealth of sympathy. I did not note her face during my recital, so engrossed was I upon the picture my brain was painting.

When I had finished, she said in a curiously dry, hard voice:

"You were terribly wronged. You have suffered cruelly, but I cannot speak of this now. I will come to you again."

For nearly two weeks an intermittent fever kept me in bed. My gentle little nurse was even more solicitous than before, but she did not allude to the story I had told her. A trace of sadness seemed to have crept into her manner, which I could not ascribe to any particular cause.

On the second day I was able to dress myself and sit on the edge of my cot Nannie seated herself on a chair near me.

"I want you to promise me something today," she said in a low, quiet voice, keeping her eyes fixed on the floor in front of her.

"I'll promise you anything in reason, Miss Nannie," I answered, with more fervor in my voice than in my words, for this tender girl had grown inexpressibly dear to me.

"This is within reason. You must forgive Jim Bradley!"

"Nannie, I have sworn to kill him. I shall keep my vow."

"No, no! You must not! It would be terrible. You must forgive him. For my sake, promise me that you will forgive him."

"Come," she whispered, and, taking my hand, she led me to the end of the ward where a screen hid a cot from view. We all knew the meaning of that ominous screen.

Noiselessly she pushed it to one side. There lay the man whom for months I had been pursuing. The ghastly pallor of death was on his features. The life was flickering in the eyes that met mine. The mute, despairing appeal on his face killed the last of my resentment. Nannie had taken his hand, and, unconscious of what I was doing, I let her put it in mine. Bradley was the only one to speak.

"That smashup finished me. I am not worth revenge now, but—I'm sorry"—As he spoke he brought his hands together and placed Nannie's in mine. "Poor little sis! I've been a bad lot!"

He fell back on his pillow. A few days later he was beyond all vengeance of this life, and as Nannie and I left his grave we faced the future together.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newsom, of Decatur, Ala. "For three years," she writes, "I endured insufferable pain from Indigestion, Stomach and Bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters, and the result was miraculous. I improved at once, and now I am completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50 cents. It is guaranteed by R. R. BELLAMY, druggist.

The Property Owner.

Iron and tin roofs are oftentimes neglected by reason of their being on top of a building and out of sight. Metal is more difficult of protection than wood, and a roof paint should be even more carefully selected than the paint for doors, windows and other portions of the building. The rust producing elements—heat of the sun, rain and snow—will soon destroy the ordinary roof paint, and it is of special importance that a paint be used that will give perfect protection and put off the necessity of frequent renewals. The Joseph Dixon Crucible Company, Jersey City, N. J., have manufactured Dixon's Silica Graphite Paint for a number of years, and it is being extensively used in all parts of the world for the protection of iron and tin roofs. The property owner will save money in labor and money by writing the company for descriptive matter.

FIGHT WITH CONVICTS AT DENVER, COLORADO.

Prisoners at State Penitentiary Attempt to Escape—One Killed and Another Wounded—All Recaptured

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CANON CITY, COL., June 22.—One convict was shot and killed and another fatally wounded by guards at the State penitentiary to-day in an attempt to escape.

At 8 o'clock a number of convicts overpowered the guards at the wash house, securing their keys. On the way to the front gate the convicts captured Mrs. John C. Cleghorn, wife of the warden, and placed her in front of them. Reaching the front gate they dynamited it and got outside, taking Mrs. Cleghorn with them. The warden instructed the guards to pick the convicts off, taking care not to shoot his wife. When fifty yards from the prison Mrs. Cleghorn fainted and the convicts released her. In the shooting, which was general from the guard, convict Kuykendall was instantly killed; William Armstrong, the ring leader, was shot by night Captain Clark and will die. Tom Fallen was captured on the bank of the big ditch. Fallen was not seriously wounded. He was one of the prisoners who recently attempted to escape from the county jail in Denver and was one of the leaders in to-day's outbreak. There were fifteen convicts in the party that broke out of prison to-day and it is said all have been recaptured. Among the prison officials who were overpowered was Dr. Palmer, the physician, who had been called on the pretence that his services were needed by a sick prisoner. He was bound and gagged and stripped of his clothes, which were donned by one of the fugitives.

BATTLE WITH MOUNTAINEERS

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., June 22.—A special from Roanoke, Va., to the Observer says:

A party of mountaineers, led by Floyd McCoy, a member of the McCoy-Hatfield feudists, went to the mining town of Keystone, McDowell county, West Virginia, last night, and took the law into their own hands. Their action was resented by John Reynolds, an employe of a brewery. McCoy's crowd crossed the railroad and opened fire on Reynolds. A large crowd gathered and the entire police force went in pursuit. McCoy retreated four hundred yards, took his stand and opened fire on the officers and a pitched battle raged in the darkness. One of McCoy's men was killed and another fatally wounded, others being also injured. The police escaped injury. The McCoy crowd escaped to the mountains, taking their dead and wounded with them. Their names are unknown. Great excitement prevailed. The McCoys have not been on the war path for several years. The Hatfields live in an adjoining county.

Mr. Isomoto says the experimental farming he has been doing has been so successful that it is the belief that within a few years the rice lands of Louisiana and Texas will be filled with Japanese rice farmers. Mr. Isomoto will leave soon for New York.

RUNAWAY TRAIN ON DOWN GRADE.

DEMOLISHED TWO HOUSES.

Four People Killed and Eight Others Injured—Four Men Killed in a Wreck at Rawlins, Ind.—Several Lives Lost in Other Wrecks.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SPOKANE, WASHINGTON, June 22.—On the Spokane Falls and Northern railroad, a short distance from the centre of the city, a runaway train of sixty cars loaded with coal and without an engine rushed four miles down grade through town to-day, demolishing a dwelling house, wrecking the crystal laundry, killing at least four people, injuring eight others and piling up a tangled mass of debris nearly fifty feet high.

The train began to slip while standing on a heavy grade and soon gained terrific speed. An empty box car, in which W. H. Thomas and an unknown tramp were sleeping, was first struck and demolished, both men being killed. Then the train crossed the street, ran over a rock pile and crashed into a six-room dwelling, three hundred feet from the track, occupied by the families of John Slee and Mrs. Meyer. The house was smashed into kindling wood. A frame building, occupied by the Crystal Steam Laundry, was struck and wrecked before the force of the train was spent. Nine people were sleeping in the Slee house. James Slee, the father, was pulled out of the ruins practically uninjured. The dead body of his son, Elmer, was found near by.

RAWLINS, IND., June 22.—Three trainmen and one other man were killed in a freight wreck, four miles east of here to-day. Eight freight cars broke loose in the Rawlins yards and after running down grade for four miles crashed into the freight train on which the victims were.

JEFFERSON CITY, MO., June 22.—In a wreck of two Missouri Pacific freight trains, which occurred at Cole Junction, five miles west of this city last night, four men were killed and one dangerously injured. The dead are fireman Mike Duvall, brakeman William Atkinson and two unknown men supposed to be tramps.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 22.—An accident occurred to-day on the North Shore railway, in which two persons were killed and a score, more or less, severely hurt. The dead are Anton Roman, founder of the Overland Monthly; M. M. Kirk, San Francisco. The passenger coach left the rails and rolled down an embankment of twelve feet.

SENSATIONAL TURN IN WILSON MURDER TRIAL.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 22.—A special from Wilson, N. C., says:

The afternoon session of the court which is trying the men indicted for the murder of Percy Jones, the insurance agent, furnished the most startling development yet occurring in this celebrated case. At the opening of the session at 2:30 Wiley Dixon, J. B. Simons and Policeman Fallon were placed upon the stand, but their evidence shed no new light on the crime. Then came the event of the day, the testimony of W. W. Barnes. Barnes is one of the defendants. He was put on the stand by the State. He told of how the plot was formed to whip Jones and where the crowd held their meeting on the night of the homicide. He implicated Allen, Rich, Morgan, Pittman, Walls, Ward, Bass, Piver, Syd Davis and himself. He said that Allen, Rich, Pittman, Bass and Ward were in Jones' room when the shooting took place.

On cross examination by Mr. Pou it was brought out that Barnes had signed an affidavit before S. A. Woodard, notary public, in contradiction to the statement made by him on the stand. It was also brought out that Barnes told the defendants that he was not going to turn State's evidence.

On examination by Mr. J. R. Uzzell the witness said he made this affidavit and told the defendants that he was not going to turn State's evidence because he was afraid of the defendants and did this to allay suspicion.

Barnes was ordered into the custody of the sheriff this evening by Judge Shaw, has been taken to his home, and is being guarded by deputies so that no harm may come to him on account of his turning State's evidence.

At a late hour to-night a warrant was sworn out by Solicitor Daniels for the arrest of Sid Davis, who was implicated this evening in the testimony of Barnes.

GALVESTON RELEASED.

Steps Will be Taken at Once for Launching the Vessel.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RICHMOND, VA., June 22.—In the Chancery Court to-day Judge Grinnan dissolved the injunction restraining the United States government from taking possession of the cruiser Galveston. The Federal government stipulates that the ship shall remain the property of the Trigg creditors until the case is determined by the court of highest resort. The Galveston will be launched this week.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Navy Department has been informed of the release of the Galveston and steps will be taken for the launching of the vessel as soon as possible. The creditors of the Trigg company contend that the Government would be put to additional expense completing the Galveston at Norfolk. The government will in this event call on the bondsmen of the Trigg company to pay any excess of cost over the limit fixed by Congress.

TILLMAN-GONZALES MURDER CASE CALLED.

Motion for a Change of Venue Heard. Affidavits—Arguments on Motion Will be Heard To-day.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 22.—The Circuit Court, Judge D. A. Townsend presiding, to day took up the case of James H. Tillman, charged with murder and a motion made for a change of venue was heard. On January 15th Tillman, lieutenant governor, shot and killed N. G. Gonzales, editor of the State, who had repeatedly denounced him when a candidate for governor last year.

The defence to-day produced about 300 affidavits to show that a fair trial could not be had in this county because of prejudice against the defendant. The principal affidavits were made by defendant's counsel and friends, who asserted that the Columbia newspapers and preachers had incited feeling against Tillman by their references to the case.

The prosecution presented about 400 affidavits in reply. Practically all the ministers of Columbia asserted that they have made no reference to the case from their pulpits. Newspaper men, including Messrs. W. E. and A. E. Gonzales, respectively editor and publisher of the State, stated in affidavits that the Columbia papers had conspicuously and carefully refrained from inflammatory denunciations of the defendant. These assertions were backed by statements from bank presidents, lawyers, physicians, college professors, merchants, and men in all lines of business, including many citizens of the county outside of Columbia.

The reading of these affidavits was not concluded when court adjourned until to-morrow morning. The argument will doubtless consume all of the day. Counsel on each side to-day contested strongly every point and several eloquent speeches were made. The prosecution is conducted by Solicitor William Thurmon, assisted by Messrs. G. Duncan Bellinger, formerly Attorney General, Andrew Crawford and William Elliott, Jr. The defence is represented by George W. Croft, of Aiken, the prisoner's law partner; ex-Judge O. W. Buchanan, the prisoner's brother-in-law; P. H. Nelson, of Columbia, formerly solicitor; George Johnstone, ex-member of Congress, and George R. Rembert of Columbia.

Tillman's mother, wife and child were in court part of the time, as was his uncle, Senator Benjamin R. Tillman.

POSTAL INVESTIGATIONS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The grand jury which has been investigating postal affairs to-day returned an indictment against August W. Machen, Diller B. Groff, Samuel A. Groff, George E. Lorenz and Martha J. Lorenz, the two latter being residents of Toledo, O. As previously stated in these dispatches the specific charge is conspiracy to defraud the government. The indictment is based on Section 5440 of the Revised Statutes which provides a penalty of $10,000 or two years imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court.

It was said by Assistant District Attorney Taggart to-day that the indictment was found against Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz by reason of the fact that the evidence adduced before the grand jury showed them to be the go-between for the Groffs and Machen.

The Groff brothers and their counsel for Machen were in court when the indictment was returned. Machen was not present. It was announced that neither Machen nor the Groffs would be re-arrested; also that they would not be required to give a new bond.

Assistant District Attorney Taggart announced that the investigation into postal affairs by the grand jury will continue, but the indictment presented to-day completes the work of his office so far as the grand jury has acted.

Plea for Metcalf.

A strong plea for James T. Metcalf who recently was dismissed from the Postoffice Department, where for years he had been chief of the money order bureau, was made to-day to President Roosevelt by director of the Mint Roberts, who has known Mr. Metcalf for a long time.

Mr. Metcalf was dismissed for alleged interference in behalf of a certain bidder for the contract to print the money order blanks for the department. President Roosevelt was urged to obtain for Mr. Metcalf a re-opening of the case. No decision has been reached by the President.

Reports to be Made Public.

The Postoffice Department will make public in the near future a general statement summarizing the conditions in the offices of cashier, finance clerk, etc., etc., at the various postoffices. The postmasters at all first class postoffices in the country, numbering about 230, have been directed to make reports on the subject. The report of Postmaster Van Cott, of New York, has been received but will not be made public until the rest are in. Mr. Van Cott's report it is stated, shows no evidence of irregularities.

Postmaster General Payne said to-day that no charges whatever have been filed against the offices of the second and third assistant postmasters general and that therefore a sweeping investigation of those offices is not contemplated. This statement excepts charges brought by certain employes of the mail bag repair shop against the administration of that shop, the reply to which by Second Assistant Postmaster Shellenberger has been in the hands of Postmaster General Payne for weeks.

Defaulting Postmistress.

BALTIMORE, June 22.—Miss Dora Campbell, the former postmistress of Maysville, Ga., who was arrested here last Friday charged with embezzling funds from the postoffice at Maysville, was given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Rogers to-day, and was remanded by him for the action of the Federal grand jury of the Northern District of Georgia, which has jurisdiction over Maysville.

President Roosevelt, after a conference with Attorney General Knox, signed an order removing Judge Daniel E McMillan, of the Supreme Court of New Mexico, on charges of general immorality.

NEGRO BURNED AT THE STAKE.

GUARD MADE RESISTANCE.

Four Members of the Mob Said to Have Been Shot—Negro Confessed to Assaulting and Murdering the Girl. Killed at Scene of Crime.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WILMINGTON, DEL., June 22.—A mob of two thousand men broke into the county work house to-night bent on lynching George White, the negro who is held on charge of assaulting and killing Helen Bishop on Monday last.

There was quite a fusillade for a time between the mob and the guards. Four members of the mob are said to be shot, but in the confusion it is impossible to obtain names except that it is known that Peter Smith, aged 17, was shot in the back. So far as known, none of the guard was injured.

The negro has been taken from the work house and started for Price's Corner, the scene of the assault and murder. The mob has cut all wires leading to Wilmington, which is five miles from the work house, and at this writing it is difficult to obtain reliable information. The mob excitedly announced when they had possession of the negro that they would burn him to death at Price's Corner.

The negro was taken to the scene of the crime. He there confessed to having assaulted the girl. He was burned at the stake and his body riddled with bullets.

WILMINGTON, DEL., June 22.—The crime for which White was lynched was one of the most revolting in the criminal annals of Delaware. The victim, Miss Helen S. Bishop, daughter of Rev. E. A. Bishop, D. D., Superintendent of the Ferris Industrial School, would have been eighteen years old next October. She was a student of the Wilmington High School and was on her way from the school last Monday afternoon when she was attacked. The industrial school, which is four miles from here, where her parents made their home, is about three quarters of a mile from Price's Corner, where the girl usually left the trolley car when she came to school. Late Monday afternoon a farmer working in the field saw a young woman stagger and fall in the road. She got up and fell again, and then she tried to crawl. The farmer and his sons went to her assistance, but when they reached the girl she was lying unconscious in the road. They found her to be Miss Bishop. She had three ugly gashes in her throat, her body was badly scratched and her clothing was torn in many places. In one hand she clutched a small pen-knife, which she used at school in sharpening pencils. There was every evidence that Miss Bishop had made a desperate resistance in defence of her honor and her life. The wounded girl was taken home and died the next afternoon without regaining consciousness.

The entire neighborhood was almost instantly aroused and a man hunt was immediately instituted. Suspicion was soon fastened on George F. White, a negro, just out of the work house, who was engaged as a laborer on the farm of Edward Woodward, near the scene of the assault.

White was found in bed that same night and when taken into custody denied all knowledge of the crime. He was identified by several persons who said they saw him in the vicinity.

A knife which Mr. Woodward said belonged to him, was found where the girl was assaulted. White was brought to Wilmington, but later was transferred to the county workhouse where the police officials said he would be safe from mob violence.

Satisfied with its night's work the greater number of the lynchers immediately left the neighborhood many of them fearing arrest. However, a large number of persons loitered at the scene awaiting developments. The failure of the county court to give White a speedy trial is in a great measure responsible for to-night's tragedy. The citizens of Wilkinson county and those in the vicinity of the crime, wanted an immediate trial and Attorney General H. H. Ward laid the matter before the court on Thursday with that end in view. The court, however did not consider haste expedient and the trial was set for the September term of court. With this decision of the court the murmurings of mob violence became louder and the indignation of the people grew hourly. Sunday night small crowds gathered in the vicinity of the jail, but they were soon dispersed.

The coroner's inquest was held to-day, but the authorities fearing that harm would befall the negro he was not taken from the workhouse, and the inquest was proceeded with without his presence. The verdict of the jury was that Miss Bishop came to her death "from the effects of an assault committed upon her by one George White, a negro."

BARRICADING THE STREETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RICHMOND, VA., June 23.—The street railway strike here assumed a graver aspect to-night than at any time so far. Cars were run on the Main and Broad street lines of the city during the day with something like regularity, and at intervals of about five minutes. On each car was a policeman and there was an average of about five passengers to a car. Towards nightfall, however, several of the cars were obstructed by strikers or strike sympathizers, the object being to prevent their return to the barns, and at one point there was a serious riot, a car being halted by a mob and pelted with stones, rotten potatoes and other missiles, by men and women. Nobody was seriously hurt nor was the car much damaged, but five arrests were made by the police. To-night it is reported that a mob of a hundred men is barricading streets through which the Main street line runs in the lower part of the city, placing obstructions on the track that it will be difficult to remove. No cars are being run to-night. All that were out at the time the disorders began managed to reach the barn and were housed for the night.

Chiefs of Police to Organize.

Chief of Police Furlong has received an invitation and will probably attend a meeting of all chiefs of police in the State at Durham during the forthcoming firemen's tournament in that city, for the purpose of forming a State Association of Chiefs of Police. Such an organization would greatly facilitate the work of the police departments of the several cities and Chief Furlong is thoroughly in accord with the spirit of the movement.

Bankers' Convention.

Many delegates and prominent visitors have already arrived at the beach for the State Bankers' Convention which will open at Wrightsville to-night with a public reception. A Plain Dry Goods Talk.

It is easy to understand why we can sell Dry Goods cheaper than most people. The reason why, is this, we have so many different departments and each department is a store within itself.

In carrying so many different lines of goods we have only one rent to pay.

The second reason is we buy our goods in large quantities in case lots and get them cheaper than retail merchants; and the third reason is we pay the cash for our goods and save the cash discounts and give that discount to our customers in the way of presents. The factories give us a discount on our bills for the money and we feel that you are entitled to a discount on your money.
